

Book Club Questions
on "The Foursome" Story and Film

1. Why was Slim so set on confronting Alfred with the news about Tallulah's infidelity?
2. What was Julio's view of Slim's plan? What did you think of his reactions? Why did he participate?
3. What was the effect of their telling Gino the plan?
4. Was Alfred's reaction a surprise to them? To you?
5. What did each man think about Alfred's reaction? How do you compare the reactions of each?
6. Why is Alfred's view of Tallulah's behavior so different than how the other men view her?
7. Do you think Alfred already knew of his friends' personal infidelities?
8. Did you personally find yourself liking or disliking a character based on their behavior?
9. Was Alfred judgmental about his friends' indiscretions?
10. Do you think the foursome will continue to play cards together in the future?
11. Will the views of any of the men be different as a result of this night's conversation?
12. In your own life, have you seen the infidelities of men treated differently than those of women?
13. Do you think Alfred's marriage is a good one? What about the other men's?
14. Did you enjoy the story? Did the movie make a difference in how you thought about the story?
15. Do you think that other cultures and societies have attitudes similar to those in our country?